

Boiling Point discussion

THEME Hate speech

THEME Hate Speech

Excercise 1

1. What causes hatred? Why does it cause hatred?

- What were the men upset about?
- Why does change upset them?
- Think about and discuss whether there are similar spaces or places where new and uninformed people may sometimes annoy you.

Exercise

2

THEME Hate Speech

2. How does the anger manifest itself? What is the hate speech like?

- Who are the 'others' mentioned in the scene?
- What kind of nightmare scenarios are presented in the scene?
- Are the nightmare scenarios real?
- Do you think the speaker is credible?

Exercise
3

THEME Hate Speech

3. Who is allowed to express hatred and how?

- How is hatred expressed?
- How is hatred visible in people?
- What kind of behaviour is accepted of a man?
How about a woman?
- In what ways has the manner of expressing hatred changed?
- What do you think causes the hatred?

Exercise
4a

THEME Hate Speech

4A. How can the matters be discussed in a sensible manner?

- How has Tapsa's attitude towards Oula changed?
- Can you understand or even respect another person, if you disagree on several matters?
- How can you talk in a constructive manner with someone who has 'wrong' ideas and opinions?
- Does it matter where the discussion takes place?

Exercise
4b

THEME Hate Speech

4B. How can the matters be discussed in a sensible manner?

- Can you genuinely listen to another person that has completely different ideas and opinions?
- Is it possible to discuss things respectfully with someone who disagrees?
- What is the purpose of the hate speech that Oula describes? What can you gain from it?
- How can you avoid conflict between people?
- How can the amount of hate speech be reduced?
- At the end, the men are sitting in silence. Why?